The Democratic State Convention distant only ten weeks. The time is so short that the Convention will probably be upon us before the public mind has settled down upon the man who is to lead us to victory or to defeat.

The Democratic party cannot afford to make any mistake in this matter. We are allowed only one opportunity to name the proper man. If we miss once, we miss altogether. There is no court of appeals.

We are glad to know that the Demperatic papers are alive to the importance of selecting as our candidate for Governor a man whose record can stand the test of the closest scrutiny. The Danville Register says on this point :

"The 'Anderson' bill has hit our Mahone brethren a savage lick, and they are biub-bering about it like two-year oids.
"But verily they shall weep barrels of tears when the November days have come, () the Democrats have put the right man in the field. he field.
"Let us have that 'right man' by all nesns; and let us bid adieu to sentiment Let us bid adieu to sentiment, and to personal preferences, and to all inclination to favor localities, and to all desire to serve neighbors and friends. The safety of the people is the supreme law-the first and highest consideration. Let us go into convention with a fixed and steady purpose not to be swept off our feet by eloquent speeches, nor by appeals to passion or prejudice. nor by even a wish to serve the most faithful of the Democratic leaders. Men are nothing. The cause is everything. We are to face the Republican partyavowedly the Republican party-and we must see to it that our leader be a man who will not have to spend ten minutes during the entire campaign in explaining away his own blunders.

The Staunton Vindicator says :

"There will be a number of names before the Convention. Let the 'Committee to Examine Records' which the Biohmond Dispatch wheely suggested some time ago be formed, and let it to do its work that no man who has by speeches or coupon payment attempted to impede the Riddieberger settlement since it teaces place by the Democracy at Lynchburg, and no man who has by vote or speech opposed the Biair bill, shall get upon the tisket. With such mon, no matter what their ability, their record would paralyze their own usefulness in the campaign and saddle the party with a heavy if not fatal burden."

The Convention will meet o for the day, and then let the merits of the various nominees be canvassed. No better method occurs to us of sifting out the men whose nomination would bring inevitable defeat from these whose nomination would surely result in a glorious triumph.

The Herald-Our Debt.

Again and again have we called attention to the utter ignorance of law and facts manifested by the writers for most of the New York papers. The Herald's article of Saturday on the Virginia debt is absolutely contemptible; that is, on the theory that its false statements were not intentionally made false. Here is one of them :

"It is not long since the Democrate laimed to be the debt-paying party, and ormally declared in convention that "re-digiatment is highway robbery, and read-usters highway robbers."

convention any such declaration. It was made by General JAMES A. WALKER. Here is another :

"Judge Wellford, of the Circuit Court of Renrico county, Va., refused to rule in ac-cordance with the decisions of the Supreme Court in the coupon cases."

Judge WELLFORD did no such thing. He decided exactly as the Supreme Court of the United States had -that Coupon-Killer No. 1 is a constitutional law and in full force. We have repeatedly quoted what the latter court decided as to that statute. Judge WELLFORD claims, as we happen to know, that he gave effect to two decisions of the Supreme Court.

The wiseacre of the Herald propeeds gravely to say that Virginians 't know what the Supreme Court has decided ! Here, however, is one truth accidentally stumbled upon by the Her-

"The State may repudiate the principal dits bonds when they become due, as there an power to compel it to pay them."

That one truth the Herald learned om the Virginia papers. Listen, again:

"But the (genuine) evupons are expressly made receivable for ta tex, debta, and all dues to the State. This quality the State has no power to destroy or change. A tender of a (genuine) coupon in payment of taxes a equivalent to a tender of money. The state must accept the genuine) coupon or the content with nothing. A tax-collector whereframe a (genuine) coupon may not extended by the texture of the property of the tax-payer he becomes a recurser and lable to an action for damage. He may be restrained by injunction from interfering with either the person or the property of a tax-payer who has lentered the amount of his taxes in (genuine) coupons."

ivalent to a tender of money. The he State can require the genuineness of supens to be proved in court to Virginia law requiring this and com-palling the tax-payer to pay in money and weit till after the jury renders its results before he can get his money

Let it put in the word "genuine" be-

Now, what did Judge WELLFORD decide? The Supreme Court had de cided that a tax-collector levying after a tender of genuine coupons was a trespasser because the State law under which he made the levy was unconsti tutional, and therefore no law. Clearly, then, if the collector proceeds under a constitutional law he is not a trespasser, but really represents the Commonwealth. The law requiring coupons to be proved to be genuine is constitutional law, as the Supreme Court has twice decided. Therefore the tax-collector and the tax-payer must both proceed under it. And this last is what Judge WELLFORD decided on Friday last.

In the Dark.

Messrs. John A. Hambleton & Co., of Baltimore, are still in the dark as to the recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Virginia cases. They haven't heard of Judge WELLFORD's at all. In their latest circular they quote Justice MAT-THEWS in italics :

"The faculty of being receivable in payment of taxes was of the essence of the right, as it constituted a self-executing remedy in the hands of the tax-payer, for it became thereby the legal duty of every tax-collector to receive such coupons in payment of the taxes, upon an equal footing and with equal effect as though they were money, and after a tender of such coupons duly made for that purpose, the situation and rights of tax-payer and coupon-holder were precisely what they would have been if he had made a like sender in money." TUESDAY MAY 19, 1885.

We all admit that to be true. But suppose the tender is in counterfeit noney. In that case the decision would not apply. No court would compel a collector to accept counterfeit money. So as to coupons. The officer is not compelled to accept counterfeit coupons. And the Legislature has provided in Coupon-Killer No. 1 how he shall proceed to ascertain whether the coupons tendered are genuine or not. If he receives counterfeit coupons, the Auditor will not accept them from the Supreme Court of the United States were such knaves and fools as to order that all coupons tendered for taxes should be received by the tax-collectors as genuine. The result would be the same to the bondholders. The market would soon be flooded with counterfeit oupons, and those clipped from the onds would become as worthless as the counterfeit, for there are not ten (or, we suppose, two) collectors in Virginia who know a genuine from a counterfeit coupon, there being no signsmanual upon them.

The prices of the bonds speak more oudly than the boasts of the brokers.

The Revised Old Testament. The Revised Old Testament, like the Revised New Testament, will prove valuable as a book of reference, but it is likely that when that is said about all is said. While it is a monument to the learning and labor of the revisers, it will, when public curiosity shall have been satisfied, be consigned in the average household to an obscure place, and the family will turn to the old familiar version with their old reverence and steadfast faith in its correctness. Our cable dispatch of Saturday spoke of passages in which a shock is given to old associations, but a comparison of these passages as we find them in fuller telegrams speeches nominating the various candi- develop anything calculated to upset dates. As soon as all these shall have any one's belief on any point whatever. been made, let the Convention adjourn In short, the most conservative among us need have no fear that any creed will A BSOLUTELY PURE. be changed or any new dogma will be started by the revised version.

> The Question of Costs. Let the Legislature make the bondholders pay the costs of the innumerable vexatious suits which they bring against the Commonwealth. In the case of Antoni vs. Greenhow, No. 845, October term, 1882, the Supreme Court of the United States said :

"Some objection is made to the 1st. 2d, and 3d sections for Coupon-Killer No. 1] because there is no provision for the recovery of costs. Without determining whether in point of fact costs can be recovered, it is sufficient to say that costs, so nomine, were not recoverable at common law, and are usually regulated by statute."

BRIEF COMMENT. There is a negro in North Carolina who says he is one hundred and eleven years old, and although he was born in Virginia he declares that he never saw GEORGE WASHINGTON, much less acted as his body-servant. We believe that that negro is more than one hundred and eleven years old.

As a matter of fact, no one can tell exactly where the presidential lightning is going to strike, so let every good Democrat brace up and not be surprised if he happens to be hit.

"The reform step is livelier than a good many men like." Yes, too lively for those that get left.

"The Psi Upsilon Society has nominated JOE HAWLEY for President of the United States." It is a well-known fact that college secret societies will have their little jokes.

CANCER CURED.

There's a nut for the clamorous bondholders to crack. But that is not all. The Supreme Court goes further and says:

"Certainly it would not be claimed that the change of an ordinary statute which provided a remedy for the enforcement of contracts so as to prevent the recovery of cotats when they had been given belower would inpain the obligation of contracts between individuals that were affected by what was done, and we see no reason why it to make the place of the statute "prevent the recovery of cotats" by the bendholders. It can so provide as between individuals, and the Supreme Court knows no reason why it cannot so provide as between the State and her persecutors.
